The Kolkata-based digital giant houses Google-certified users in the fields of search, mobile, video and display ads, shopping and Google Analytics IQ. "We have helped companies and agencies, both small and large, to achieve their digital marketing goals with the help of Google AdWords and other tools such as Facebook Ads, content marketing and others" explained Mr. Abhishek Rungta, CEO of Indus Net Technologies.

With a number of agencies claiming to offer digital marketing services, businesses often choose the wrong vendors. Millions of dollars across the world are spent on ineffective marketing and ad campaigns. Google's list of its premier partners helps businesses to choose the best digital agencies to run AdWords campaigns. The Google Premier Partner Badge is one of the more difficult and prestigious achievements for digital agencies to secure.

"We are humbled and honored that our skills and expertise in AdWords have been recognized by none other Google itself", exclaimed Mr. Aji, CEO of Indus Net Techshu. Google has been working towards bringing the most reliable and efficient of digital agencies to clients, so that they do not lose their way amidst a maze of companies that offer digital marketing services.
